Creative guardrails

- Send the final image/video and exact caption to KBH for written approval before it goes live.
- Keep the paid-partnership disclosure visible and close to the endorsement; do not bury it after "more."
- Do not say guaranteed, lock, risk-free, can't lose, fixed, insider, automatic profit, or promise a win rate.
- Describe arbitrage as monitoring for potential opportunities—not guaranteed profit—and state that sportsbook lines can move, limit, or void wagers.
- Do not alter the price, deadline, tracking link, logo, responsible-gaming footer, or membership benefits without KBH approval.
- If a platform offers a Paid Partnership label, use it and keep the written disclosure too.

Tracking and reporting

Sports Centered receives its own link/code. KBH tracks partner-attributed visits, checkout starts, successful paid VIP memberships, reversals, and commission status. KBH will send a partner-only monthly statement. Sports Centered should not receive access to KBH's complete admin dashboard, customer data, or other partners' performance.
